Dress Code Policy for Junior-Senior Banquet

The Jr./Sr. Banquet is a formal event and floor-length dresses are the ideal choice for ladies to wear. All ladies attending the banquet must have their dresses checked. Attendance at one of the three dates to be announced is mandatory. All of these dress checks will be at 3:15 p.m. at the bathrooms on the organ side of the church auditorium. Young ladies who do not attend CCS but are coming as guests to the banquet must also get their dresses checked. It is the responsibility of the young man to provide this information to their date.

Ladies:

1. The student must come prepared to try on the dress (including shoes and appropriate undergarments).
2. Any dress needing alteration must be checked again and approved before the event.
3. If a young lady shows up at a banquet in a dress that does not meet the CCS standard, the student will be given a sweater to wear and may face disciplinary action.
4. Absolutely no cleavage can show while sitting, standing, or bending over.
5. Appropriate undergarments must be worn according to the style of the dress (including an appropriate-length slip).
6. No off-shoulder, strapless, or single-shoulder dresses are allowed. Straps will be required and will need to be between 1-1/2 to 2" in width.
7. No spaghetti strap dresses may be worn without a cover-up (i.e., jacket, bolero, shrug, etc.). If a shawl is worn, it must be pinned to cover the straps.
8. The back of the dress must come high enough to cover the bra. Openings should not go below the bra. Approval will be at the discretion of the three-member committee.
9. If choosing a knee-length dress, the dress length is to come to the middle of the knee and must not come above the knee when seated or may be to the floor. Long dress slits may be no higher than the knee when sitting or standing.
10. Lace overlay dresses - the dress itself (not the lace overlay) is to come to the middle of the knee and must not come above the knee when seated. NOTE: The lace overlay is usually longer than the dress.
11. Dresses should fit nicely; however, they should not be too tight.
12. Young ladies who do not attend CCS must also have their dresses approved in order to attend. Please make sure all guidelines are met before bringing the dress in for approval.
13. Please be aware that not all styles accommodate everyone. Dresses will be approved according to how the style looks when worn by the young lady.

Gentlemen:

1. All gentlemen are to conform to CCS dress code guidelines concerning their attire, hair, and facial hair.
2. Clothing should meet or exceed the uniform standard.
3. Gentlemen should wear suit or tux, dress pants, dress socks, dress shoes, and tie.

General Banquet Rules:

1. Students are to go everywhere in groups; no one alone and no couples. Couples will not be alone together. All students should be participating with the activities.
2. No PDA of any kind.
3. No pranks, horseplay, or roughhousing.
4. Students and guests should be dressed modestly to school standards.
5. Everyone should help with clean up to leave the place neat.
6. If students are leaving after 12 midnight, parents must pick up the student.
